

Saskatchewan Teachers' Institute on Parliamentary Democracy

April 28-May 2, 2012

“This was such a valuable institute! It was a chance in a lifetime, being treated like dignitaries! The inside look of parliamentary democracy has made me a better teacher!”

SSTI Participant

Experience an insider's view of government and the legislative process through:

- Briefings by Lieutenant Governor, Speaker, Clerk, members of the judiciary, Chief Electoral Officer, members of the media, government officials
- Meeting with elected officials: Caucus Whips, Caucus Chairs, House Leaders, Cabinet Ministers and Members of the Legislative Assembly
- Attending Question Period and Routine Proceedings in the Legislative Chamber
- Tour of Government House and the Legislative Building of Saskatchewan
- Opportunities to network with educators who have similar interests and objectives

Saskatchewan teachers in all subject areas and education levels are invited to apply.

Registration includes accommodation, transportation and meals. Before December 31, 2011—$100.
After December 31—$125.

Application forms are available at <http://www.legassembly.sk.ca/about/role-of-the-speaker/social-studies-teachers-institute/ssti-application>

You can also email speaker@legassembly.sk.ca or phone (306) 787-2282.

The Saskatchewan Teachers' Institute on Parliamentary Democracy is pleased to have the support of the Saskatchewan Ministry of Education, Saskatchewan School Boards Association, Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation, Saskatchewan Regional Directors of Education, and Social Studies Saskatchewan.

