LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

Province of Saskatchewan

SIXTH SESSION

FOURTEENTH LEGISLATURE

Regina, Thursday, February 6, 1964

3:00 o'clock p.m.

This being the day appointed by Proclamation of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, dated the Fifteenth day of January, 1964, for the meeting of the Sixth Session of the Fourteenth Legislative Assembly of the Province of Saskatchewan, and the Assembly having met:

Mr. Speaker informed the Assembly that he had received a communication from the Private Secretary to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor stating that His Honour would open the Session at three o'clock p.m. today, Thursday, the Sixth day of February, 1964.

3:05 o'clock p.m.

His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor entered the Chamber and, having taken his seat upon the Throne, was pleased to open the Session with the following Speech:—

MR. SPEAKER,

MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:

IT IS MY PRIVILEGE to welcome you to the Sixth Session of the Fourteenth Legislature of Saskatchewan.

The year just ended will be long remembered in Saskatchewan. The bountiful harvest and the record export sales of wheat represent achievement and fulfillment long sought after by our farmers, 1963 was also highlighted by the rapid expansion of our general economy and a further broadening of our economic base.

Agricultural production exceeded $1,000,000,000 for the first time; the number of cattle on farms set a new record; community pastures increased in number to a total of two hundred and seven.

The value of non-agricultural production also exceeded $1,000,000,000 for the first time in our history; capital investment was never greater; industry continued to expand at a sustained high rate; new jobs were created and employment increased; unemployment dropped to its lowest level in many years; mineral production exceeded all previous records; potash came into continuous production; a chemical industry was established; hydro-electric power from the Saskatchewan River system became a reality; Saskatchewan helium became available for export to the markets of the world; a record number of tourists visited our province.

The quickening pace of our entire economy focuses new attention upon the great diversity and potential wealth of our natural and mineral resources. The future development of this heritage in such a manner as to assure maximum benefits to the people of our province was the concern of a Saskatchewan Resources Conference held in the City of Saskatoon last month. This conference, organized by the Industry Advisory Council and co-sponsored by the Saskatchewan Research Council, the Saskatchewan Economic Advisory Council, the Rural Development Council and the University of Saskatchewan, brought together three hundred business and community leaders, technical experts, administrators and special visitors from other parts of Canada. Their discussions and deliberations have suggested important guidelines in the conservation and development of our resources.

My Government considers it essential that the rate of economic expansion in Saskatchewan be encouraged to the maximum possible extent. You will be asked to participate in this by approving important proposals which provide new and improve existing governmental programmes designed to facilitate and sustain this growth.

Legislation will be introduced to authorize a broader programme aimed towards the further development of the agricultural industry of the province, including the provision of credit, adjustments in land use and rehabilitation of rural areas.

You will be asked to approve legislation which will authorize the Saskatchewan Economic Development Corporation to broaden its field of activities. The management training programme designed to assist small business will be expanded. Legislation which will provide technical, administrative and financial assistance to communities faced with municipal problems brought about by extra-ordinary industrial growth will be proposed.

During the next few years the South Saskatchewan Dam will be completed; the associated hydro-electric power plant will be in operation; a good start will be made on recreation facilities on the reservoir and on the irrigation programme, and diversion of water into the Qu'Appelle basin will begin. This period will see an intensive examination of several other major projects including the reclamation of a million acres of arable land in the Saskatchewan River delta; another major power project on the Saskatchewan River; a comprehensive multi-purpose scheme to augment water supplies in south-eastern Saskatchewan; and expanded programmes of small water development for agricultural, municipal, industrial and other purposes. Plans are being made in co-operation with the Governments of Canada, Manitoba and Alberta to study the water resources of the Saskatchewan-Nelson basin, including potential additional supply by diversions and storage. Growing demands on our water resources in the years ahead make necessary a more comprehensive approach in water resource planning, development and use. Accordingly you will be asked to approve legislation which will establish a New Saskatchewan Water Resources Commission.

In recent years My Government, in co-operation with the Government of Canada, has provided for a broader programme of vocational education and development. New and enlarged technical training facilities have been built. It is now apparent that plans should be made for a significant expansion of programmes, facilities and opportunities in vocational education and technical training, designed to serve the needs of young people and adults alike.

Significant results are now apparent from the government's long-term plans to improve transportation and communication facilities. Today approximately seventy-five percent of provincial highway traffic is accommodated on four thousand miles of dust-free surface. Major emphasis will continue to be given to extending the dust-free highway mileage. The urban assistance policy, which has aided municipalities to improve streets that serve as highway connectors, will be extended. Additional funds for this policy and its application to other urban streets, including main streets in centres whose population is less than one thousand, will be recommended.

To date some two hundred and ninety Rural Municipalities, eleven Local Improvement Districts and one hundred and four towns and villages have participated in the grid road programme. Approximately nine thousand, five hundred miles of all-weather municipal roads have been built. Use of the Municipal Loan and Development Fund, together with other funds which will be recommended for your approval, will enable municipalities to accelerate their grid road programme.

More resource access roads are being built in Northern Saskatchewan. The Otosquen Road, linking Hudson Bay and The Pas was opened last year; The Hanson Lake Road now provides Saskatchewan access to Creighton and Flin Flon. Construction of the Uranium City Road will continue from the Churchill River to Reindeer Lake. Work on a road linking Squaw Rapids and Cumberland House has commenced. Plans to construct other northern roads will be recommended.

Provincial telephone service has been extended to a total of two hundred and fifteen thousand customers. Direct Distance Dialing gives homes and businesses in the Regina area direct connection with millions of telephones in North America. This modern communication facility will be extended to some other areas of the province in the coming year.

Electricity supplied by the provincial power utility increased by seventeen percent in 1963. The corporation now serves two hundred thousand consumers with electric power and one hundred thousand consumers with natural gas. Natural gas service will be further extended this year, and the integration of the City of Regina power system with the Saskatchewan Power Corporation network which has now been agreed upon, will provide mutual savings and benefits to all customers in the province.

Improved productivity in every phase of our economy has permitted the people of Saskatchewan to undertake programmes which have improved living conditions, made more opportunities available for all and made more adequate provision for our senior citizens and unfortunate families in need of help. Because of resulting improvement in provincial revenues, it has been possible to reduce by $5,000,000 the personal premiums for Medical Care and Hospitalization.

The Family Farm Improvement Programme has assisted in the installation of water and sewerage systems in thousands of farm homes. The Municipal Water Assistance Programme has aided in making water and sewer services a reality for thousands of citizens in our smaller communities. Within the last four years there has been a three-fold increase in the number of urban centres in Saskatchewan served by water and sewer facilities.

Improved and extended provincial parks have added interest and enjoyment for many Saskatchewan families and visitors. One hundred and fifty-one municipalities have received assistance for the establishment of thirty regional parks. Camping and picnic sites were established along the Trans-Canada Highway and other provincial highways. You will be asked to make provision to maintain and expand these programmes.

My Government has approved a recommendation of the Minimum Wage Board for an increase in minimum wages.

A new Provincial Geriatric Centre has been opened at Swift Current. Grants continue to be paid for the construction and maintenance of housing for senior citizens. Today over five thousand aged persons are cared for in modern comfortable housing units. Following the increase in the Old Age Security payment of $75.00 per month effective December 1st last, increases were authorized in the Province's Supplemental Allowance Programme effective the same date. My Government also welcomed the decision of the Government of Canada to share the cost of increasing Old Age Assistance Pensions and pensions for blind and disabled persons.

To meet the need for better housing and economic development in Northern Saskatchewan, you will be asked to create a housing and development fund. This will facilitate the expansion of development programmes designed to improve income opportunities, to create employment and to encourage new economic activity. Emphasis will be laid on the use of co-operative housing methods where feasible.

An increase of $5,000,000 in school grants together with substantially increased grants for the University will be recommended. Amendments to The Secondary Education Act respecting the levying of local taxes for the support of education at the high school level will be proposed. You will be asked to approve legislation to provide an integrated programme for the training of all types of teachers.

An extended programme of bursaries to assist in the training of dentists has met with marked success. More than fifty such bursaries have been awarded to students whose professional services will be available to the people of Saskatchewan during 1964 and in subsequent years. A continuation of this programme will be recommended.

1963 also marked the inauguration of awards of medical scholarships and bursaries to over one hundred and twenty-five Saskatchewan medical students. It is expected that this programme will further enhance the interest in medicine which was evident in this year's increased enrolment.

The latest action taken by My Government to strengthen legislative procedures was the proclamation of The Regulations Act, 1963. This act provides an improved method of notifying the public of the enactment of regulations of a legislative nature and will facilitate legislative examination of such regulations.

Procedures designed to protect the position of the individual when it is necessary for him to surrender property for public purposes was the subject of a study by a Special Committee of this Assembly appointed at the last session. This committee met throughout the summer and fall months and heard representations from many individuals, organizations and government departments. Consideration will be given to the report of this committee with a view to introducing legislation at an early date. Another Special Committee concerned itself with examining ways and means of improving the ability of the Legislature to scrutinize, on behalf of the citizens of the province, the expenditure of public funds. The report of this committee will be of considerable value to Members of the Legislature. The Legislature will wish to express its appreciation to those of its members who have contributed to the valuable work of these committees.

Study has been given to measures adopted, notably in the Scandinavian countries and in New Zealand, which provide citizens with direct and easy access to appeal from administrative decisions thought to be arbitrary or unjust. It will be suggested that a Special Committee of the Legislature be asked to inquire into the best means of providing similar access for Saskatchewan citizens.

During the past year My Government has been disturbed by frequent reports that citizens were experiencing difficulties in being treated in publicly supported hospitals by the medically qualified physicians of their choice. Mr.

Justice Mervyn Woods was appointed a Commissioner under The Public Inquiries Act to investigate this area of difficulty. The Commissioner's report and recommendations have been received and legislation will be proposed based in part upon these recommendations.

Some months ago the Government received from the Health Services Planning Commission the report of the Hospital Survey Committee appointed by that Commission. Among its recommendations was that My Government establish a hospital in the Regina area to provide the facilities of a base hospital to the residents of southern Saskatchewan. Legislation is proposed to establish a board to study this recommendation and, if deemed feasible, to proceed with establishing a hospital centre to provide certain hospital services to residents of southern Saskatchewan.

Last year several of My Ministers attended Federal-Provincial Conferences at which fiscal arrangements, a municipal loan programme, the proposed Canada Pension Plan and other topics were discussed. The opportunity for such discussions were welcomed. Some progress was made in certain areas of mutual concern.

Saskatchewan welcomed the decision of the Government of Canada to assist municipalities to obtain additional investment capital. Legislation authorizing the province and municipalities to participate fully in this programme will be recommended to you.

While regretting recent retrogressive changes in the proposal to institute a portable pension plan for Canadian citizens, My Government is still of the opinion that the modified plan merits support.

The Government of Saskatchewan expresses some disappointment in the new federal proposals respecting tax-sharing arrangements. These proposals represent a departure from desirable principles of equalization of major provincial revenues. Saskatchewan will continue to urge that important equalization principles be reinstated in future federal-provincial fiscal arrangements.

The Government has had frequent consultations with the Federation of Saskatchewan Indians and with officials of appropriate departments of the Government of Canada on matters of mutual concern. As a result some provincial programmes in the field of education and health, and, in some areas, of grid roads and power and telephone service, have been made available to our Indian people. At a recent Federal-Provincial Conference My Government indicated its willingness, subject to adequate consultation with Saskatchewan Indians and to the continued availability of federal financial assistance, to extend such programmes and to do so more rapidly. Plans for extended consultations are under way as are plans for further federal-provincial discussions early in 1964.

Emphatic representations have been made to the Government of Canada regarding proposals to abandon many miles of branch railway lines in Saskatchewan. Steps are also being taken to assist local communities in assembling information concerning the effect of such proposed abandonment. My Government will continue to take the position that railway services must not be abandoned without consideration of the total economic and social impact on the communities and services affected.

Provision will again be made for an extensive programme of public works in the Province. As in the past these works will be staged to maximize as far as possible the employment of labour during the winter season. In addition, the Government will continue to pursue a policy favouring to the greatest extent possible the use of materials manufactured in Saskatchewan.

Amendments to The Automobile Accident Insurance Act will be introduced to provide uniform and convenient proof of public liability insurance for Saskatchewan motorists travelling in other provinces.

An Act will be introduced giving the Courts jurisdiction to modify unduly harsh provisions of contracts securing repayment of money.

The Public Accounts for last fiscal year, together with estimates for the year beginning April 1, 1964 will be submitted.

I leave you now to the business of the Session with full confidence that you will favourably discharge your duties and responsibilities. May Divine Providence continue to bless our Province and guide the Legislature in all its deliberations.

By leave of the Assembly, on motion of the Hon. Mr. Brockelbank, seconded by Mr. Danielson.

Ordered, That the Report of the Select Special Committee appointed to prepare lists of the Members to compose the Select Standing Committees of this Assembly, be now concurred in.

Mr. Speaker informed the Assembly that Archie Raymond Ponto had been appointed Sergeant-at-Arms of the Legislative Assembly.

Mr. Speaker informed the Assembly that Charles Edward Selwyn Franks had been appointed Clerk Assistant of the Legislative Assembly during the present Session.

Mr. Speaker laid before the Assembly, pursuant to Standing Order 105, the report of the Legislative Librarian dated February 3, 1964, which is as follows:—

REPORT OF THE LEGISLATIVE LIBRARIAN

REGINA, FEBRUARY 3, 1964.

To the Honourable,

The Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan.

Sir:

I have the honour to submit to you the Annual Report of the Legislative Library.

The Reading Room of the Library with its historical photographs, maps and other items again attracted thousands of visitors. Mr. Ratnasiri Perera, Acting High Commissioner for Ceylon, paid a formal visit to the Library, signing the Distinguished Visitors' Book on August 3rd.

During the year the Library received numerous gifts of books, papers and photographs. While it is not practicable to list all of the gifts, some deserve special mention. The Book of Remembrance, 1950-1953 (Korean War), presented on behalf of the Minister of the Department of Veterans Affairs by P. G. Klaehn, Regional Administrator, came to the Library through the good offices of the Honourable C. C. Williams. The Montreal Trust Company, Regina Office, presented photographs, pamphlets and personal papers of the Patton family. Mr. Stewart Young of Regina presented a history of the Saskatchewan Branch, Engineering Institute of Canada. Reverend Fr. D. F. Robertson of Regina donated the History of a Barr Colonist Family. Mr. Stewart Nicks of Grand Coulee presented a diary and personal papers of his father, Mr. John Nicks. Historic photographs were received from the following donors—Mr. Everett Baker, Shaunavon; Mrs. G. H. Barr, Regina; Mr. A. C. Bole, Regina; Mr. Frank Hanson, Regina; Mr. C. T. Helstrom, Gray; Mr. T. K. Brown, London, Ontario; Mr. R. B. Hilton, Victoria; Mrs. D. W. Houston, Toronto; Mr. R. M. Jackson, Yorkton; Mr. Ronald Mackay, Cumberland House; Mr. H. V. S. Page, Qualicum Beach. The Library is most appreciative of these and other gifts.

Again this past year the resources of the Library were widely used by officials preparing background studies for various commissions, by visiting researchers from Commonwealth countries and from the United States, and by scholars doing post graduate work under the auspices of the United Nations. Students from the University of Saskatchewan and from the city collegiates made wide use of the document and book resources. These demands were in addition to the traditional responsibilities to Members of the Legislative Assembly and officials of the public service of the province.

It is now two years since the work of re-cataloguing library resources was completed. The summary following has been prepared on the same basis as that presented in last year's report. It includes only the number of items borrowed and used outside of the Library and does not include the items used in the institution.

Books and Materials Circulated in 1963

Books, including reference shelf	2,614
Law, Statutes and Debates	733
Newspapers	933
Pamphlets and maps	1,647
Periodicals	922
Dominion Bureau of Statistics	752
Total	7,601

Reference Inquiries, Bibliographic Research, etc.

Total in Legislative Library	3,416
Total in Archives Division of the Library	1,402
Requests served by microfilm	229
Total	5,047

This statistical data shows that there has been a marked increase in the number of items borrowed and an increase, also, in the reference service required of the Library. A further service extended to researchers and scholars is that of inter-library loans. Through this service the resources of many other libraries are made available, on a reciprocal basis, through this Library. During 1963 a total of 228 items were borrowed. These came from 25 libraries from as far away as Victoria and Philadelphia. A total of 39 borrowers used the service.

During the past year the Library continued to collect the writings of Saskatchewan authors. The collection of local histories which received so favourable a start in 1955 has become a prime source of information on early settlement. Staff members contributed to professional and literary magazines. The Library is indebted to Mrs. Heather Meagher of Regina who, working as a part-time staff member, so carefully and competently compiled a bibliography on the medicare issue in Saskatchewan during the period January 1, 1960 to July 31, 1962.

I take much pleasure in publicly recording my personal thanks to a conscientious and courteous staff.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN H. ARCHER,
Legislative Librarian.

(Sessional Paper No. 1)

On motion of the Hon. Mr. Lloyd, seconded by Mr. Thatcher:

Active in the Royal Canadian Legion, he served as president of the Summerland, B.C. branch. Earlier, in 1951, he had been presented with a life membership in the Spruce Lake, Saskatchewan branch. Mr. Trippe was a merchant in Spruce Lake for many years and took an active part in community affairs.

Mr. Weber who was born in Minnesota, educated at Muenster and Saskatoon, and lived at Meadow Lake from 1942 where he was an elevator agent, and where he served on the town council for six years, during four of which he was Mayor. He was an officer of the Rotary Club and the Knights of Columbus, and a member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

In recording its own deep sense of loss and bereavement, this Assembly expresses its most sincere sympathies with members of the bereaved families.

On motion of the Hon. Mr. Lloyd, seconded by Mr. McDonald:

The Order of the Day being called for resuming debate on the Address-in-Reply and the amendment thereto, Mr. Speaker made the following statement:

STATEMENT BY MR. SPEAKER

Hon. Members will recall that during the course of the debate on the Address-in-Reply on Friday last, the hon. Member for Last Mountain, the Minister of Industry and Information, presented the hon. Member for Morse, the Leader of the Opposition, with certain recordings which the Minister stated had been made from radio broadcasts of speeches made by the Leader of the Opposition in this Chamber during debates of previous Sessions. A question of privilege was raised to the effect that the hon. Minister was in contempt of the House by virtue of the fact that he had made or caused to be made an unauthorized report of the proceedings of this House. It should be noted that the question at issue is the act of recording, not the contents of these particular recordings. I reserved my ruling at the time, and now wish to advise the House as follows:

May's Parliamentary Practice, 16th Edition, at page 42, defines parliamentary privilege as:

the sum of the peculiar rights enjoyed by each House collectively as a constituent part of the High Court of Parliament, and by members of each House individually, without which they could not discharge their functions, and which exceed those possessed by other bodies or individuals.

Since proceedings based on a question of privilege take precedence over other business of the House, it is my duty as Speaker to determine whether or not a prima facie case of a breach of privilege has been established.

The head of privilege relevant in this case appears to me to be that of freedom of speech, a freedom which the House of Commons of the 17th and 18th Centuries sought to ensure through the exercise of its right to exclude strangers and to control the publication of debates and proceedings. Anson, in The Law and Custom of the Constitution, Volume I, at pages 161 to 163, shows how essential were these safeguards in the days when intimidation and wilful misrepresentation were very real threats to the freedom of debate, and May adds at page 55, that in the 18th Century an aristocratic Parliament maintained these safeguards because of a certain impatience with the pressure of public opinion.

This undoubted right to control the publication of debates is a right which Parliament has never relinquished, but the proscription of unauthorized publication has, for more than a century now, been more honoured in the breach than the observance. Reports of the debates and proceedings of the House are made and published, according to Anson at page 164, "on sufferance", and May adds at page 56, that "So long as the debates are correctly and faithfully reported . . . the privilege which prohibits their publication is waived."

I must also advise the House that I have given consideration to the suggestion made on Friday last during the very helpful discussion of this question that there was a distinction between the reproduction of debates in a newspaper, on the one hand, and in a recording, on the other. On reflection, I do not feel that this distinction can be sustained since the prohibition respecting the publication of debates includes, according to May at page 55, not only a printed publication, but also any "copy or notes of anything . . . that is propounded or agitated in the House." Moreover, May again states at page 47, that it has been a condition of parliamentary privilege since 1704 that no new privilege, "not warranted by the known laws and customs of Parliament," shall be created. Thus, it would appear that in terms of parliamentary privilege the making of a recording of debates broadcast from this House must be dealt with as a form of publication.

I must therefore conclude that while insistence on the privacy of debates in this House would be consistent with the ancient custom of Parliament, it would be quite inconsistent with the modern concept of parliamentary democracy recognized in Westminster since the late 18th Century. Should the House decide that the making of an unauthorized recording of a speech broadcast from this House constituted a breach of privilege, it would follow that any other record of proceedings not specifically authorized by the House, which could include newspaper accounts and reports of the debates, would also constitute a breach of privilege.

Therefore, while I thank the Members for bringing this important matter to my attention and giving me the benefit of their experience, I rule that it has not been established that the making of an unauthorized recording of a radio broadcast of a speech made during debate in this House is prima facie a breach of privilege.

(Hon. Mr. Nollet)

STATEMENT BY MR. SPEAKER

The House apparently found itself in some difficulty the other evening when the Honourable Minister of Social Welfare quoted from a private letter which made reference to the proceedings of this House during the present session. I would draw to the attention of honourable Members citation 157 (5) in the Fourth Edition of Beauchesne's Parliamentary Rules and Forms, in which he says:

It is not in order to read articles in newspapers, letters or communications emanating from persons outside the House and referring to, or commenting on, or denying anything said by a member or expressing any opinion reflecting on proceedings within the House.

It would therefore appear that the Honourable Minister was out of order simply by reading the letter.

The rules with respect to tabling documents quoted in debate are quite clear: official state papers must not be quoted in debate unless the Member is prepared to lay the document on the Table; the same rule does not, however, apply to private letters, and I would refer the House to Beauchesne, Fourth Edition, Citation 159 (3), and Mr. Speaker Parker's rulings in this House on February 4, 1935, February 20, 1936, and February 9, 1938.

Nevertheless, since the House is entitled to the same information as the Member who quotes from a private letter, it has become established that even private correspondence quoted in the House must be tabled, or at the very least, the Member must divulge to the House the name and address of the sender, unless the Member himself is prepared to take full responsibility for the truth and accuracy of the contents of the correspondence. I would in this connection cite Beauchesne again, the Fourth Edition, Citation 179 (2):

If a member proposes to read a communication in its entirety, or even a portion, without divulging the name and address of the sender and the member refuses to take the responsibility for the truth and accuracy of the contents, such a communication should be laid on the table, and, particularly, if so desired by any member of the House.

In my own opinion, the most acceptable practice is for the Member who has quoted from a private letter to lay the document on the Table.

I do not feel that it would be in order for me to insist that the Minister table this correspondence, for I am sure that the House would want to respect the privacy of correspondence, but I feel that since the House permitted the Minister to quote from the document in the debate the other evening, and since he offered at that time to table the document, he should either lay the letter on the Table, or divulge the name and address of the sender, or he himself should accept full responsibility for the truth and accuracy of the statements quoted.

The Assembly resumed the adjourned debate on the proposed Resolution (No. 2) moved by Mr. Thiessen:

That this Assembly urges that no rail line abandonment be permitted until the Federal Government establishes a proper agency to study the full economic and social consequences suffered by farmers, business and residents of rural and small urban communities, and the adverse effect on the financial position of local governments, and urges further that before the abandonment of any branch line shall be authorized, the railway companies shall have implemented plans for rational re-organization of their systems.

This Assembly urges further, that such a federal agency (a) study all means by which the railway companies either jointly or separately might rationalize their operations without abandoning branch lines, and (b) consider whether all, or a part of, the mineral rights or other advantages held by railway companies as a result of land grants given to build such rail lines should revert to the Crown upon the abandonment of any line, and the proposed amendment thereto by Mr. Coderre:

That all the words after the word "That" where it first appears in the first line be deleted, and the following substituted therefor:

"this Assembly urge the Federal Government not to allow the abandonment of any rail line or lines which might adversely affect any community in Saskatchewan."

The debate continuing on the motion and the amendment, it was moved by the Hon. Mr. Nollet:

That the debate be now adjourned.

The question being put on the adjournment motion, it was agreed to on the following recorded division:

MR. SPEAKER, AND MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:

It is my duty to relieve you of further attendance at the Legislative Assembly. In doing so, I wish to thank you and congratulate you upon the work you have done. I wish also to express my confidence that the approval of the programs and plans presented to you will continue to provide the services necessary to the growth and development of our province.

We are thankful for the fruits of last season's bountiful harvest and for the opportunities to participate in a growing and developing economy. Your action in adopting legislation and plans relating to further agricultural and industrial development will contribute to the further growth of our province.

You have again indicated your concern for young people by approving substantial increases in school grants, by making provision for additional vocational schools, by maintaining and extending student loans and bursaries, by passing legislation designed to further improve the training of teachers and by making provision for further development of our University.

It is of utmost importance that the people of Saskatchewan have opportunity to enjoy leisure time. The development of the recreational resources of Saskatchewan is a public service meriting high priority. The decisions you have made to provide for further provincial parks, regional parks and picnic site developments, and to build additional roads in northern resource and recreational areas, will provide more of our citizens easier access to holiday areas.

The need for adequate planning, development and use of the province's water resources has become all the more apparent in light of the increased demands of agriculture, industry, communities and farm and urban homes.

The decision you have made to create a Water Resources Commission will contribute further to the proper utilization and conservation of this vital resource.

The Address you presented to Her Majesty the Queen on the occasion of the birth of her third son reflects the sentiments and affection of the people of Saskatchewan who rejoice in this happy event.

I thank you for the provision you have made to meet the further requirements of the public service and assure you the sum of money voted will be used economically, prudently and in the public interest.

In taking leave of you, I desire to thank you for the manner in which you have devoted your energies to the activities of the session and wish you the full blessing of Providence as you return again to your respective homes.

The Hon. Mr. Walker, Provincial Secretary, then said:

MR. SPEAKER, AND MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY:

It is the will and pleasure of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor that this Legislative Assembly be prorogued until it pleases His Honour to summon the same for the dispatch of business, and the Legislative Assembly is accordingly prorogued.
