

Media Release:

Appointment of Individual to Audit Committee for the Province of Saskatchewan

On December 4, 2025, Hon. Todd Goudy, Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, appointed an additional individual to serve on the audit committee of the province of Saskatchewan.

The Speaker of the Legislative Assembly appoints the Chair and members of the audit committee on the recommendation of the Standing Committee on Public Accounts. Earlier this year, the Public Accounts committee chose to nominate four individuals from the following categories: two members of Chartered Professional Accountants of Saskatchewan; one faculty member, with expertise in accounting, from a post-secondary institution; and a member of the Law Society of Saskatchewan who is experienced in financial law. The additional nominee, Patrick Pitka, is an individual with experience operating a business in the private sector.

The additional member of the audit committee is appointed for the remainder of the current legislature.

The updated membership of the audit committee is:

- Regan Schmidt, Saskatoon, Chair of the audit committee;
- Danielle Favreau, Saskatoon;
- Richard Kozachenko, Saskatoon;
- Jason Majid, Saskatoon; and
- Patrick Pitka, Saskatoon.

The audit committee is created pursuant to The Provincial Auditor Act. The functions of the audit committee include assisting the Standing Committee on Public Accounts with recommending a Provincial Auditor, assisting in the review of the estimates and reports of the Provincial Auditor, and any other matter that the committee may request. In addition, the audit committee may be requested to review matters referred to it by the Provincial Auditor, the Minister of Finance, the Minister Responsible for Crown Corporations, or the Standing Committee on Crown and Central Agencies.
